

JAN 18 1963

BETHESDA - ~~Sanitized~~ Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300640001-4
MARYLAND
THE TRIBUNE

FOIAb3b

FRIDAY - 11,436

JAN 18 1963

Penniman Speaker For AGA

CPYRGHT

Prof. Howard R. Penniman, head of the Department of Government at the Georgetown University will be the speaker at a meeting Tuesday at 8:30 P.M. of Americans for constitutional action; Montgomery County Chapter.

The subject will be "Is Realignment of the Political Parties Desirable?"

Dr. Penniman will be introduced by James P. Gleason, candidate for the United States Senate in the last Maryland Republican Primary.

The meeting will be held at the new Citizens' Building and Loan Community room on Connecticut Avenue (University Boulevard) near Farragut, in Kensington.

Prof. Penniman, before heading the Department at Georgetown, has been consultant to the Department of State and the CIA, and has been on the staffs of various Universities, including Yale, Minnesota, and Alabama. He has written a number of authoritative books on Government and Political Science, the latest, and recently published being "The American Political Process."

Coffee and light refreshments will be served following the question period.